

I would encourage the FCC to not implement any rules that would have the effect of weaken the existing Indiana non-call law. The current law has been a welcome break from many unwelcome interruptions.